1. Your accommodation booking.

Geographical location and displacement: The cottage is 30 minutes from Noumea center and is in the middle of relaxing nature. It is better to have a car to move freely and flexibly in New Caledonia. There is however a public bus 5 minutes walk from our house and going to Noumea city

 look here the location on google map

We will be at your service to advise you on all the visits to be made on the mainland and the islands: we know the territory perfectly. In the travelers lounge you will find lots of information: prospectus and guides are at your service

2. Regulation:

We make you noticed that we have animals (2 dogs and two cats very sociable, vaccinated and accustomed to travelers, they are part of the house).

The swimming pool is accessible according to a schedule agreed upon.

On our property there are 5 small bungalows in the countryside. The covered terrace in front of the main house is private and not accessible to travelers

It is possible to book breakfast: 8.38 euros per person (book the day before) and not included in the price of accommodation

It is possible to book the evening meal at the price of 23.46 euros: book the day before no included in the price of accommodation

When you arrive an inventory of the cleanliness will be done with you; The accommodation will be at your disposal in a good state of cleanliness: we will be listening to your remarks. At your departure, the same inventory will be done. If at the end of stay, the cottage was not returned as it was presented to you on arrival, household expenses may be requested up to 30 euros. You can, if you wish, add these 30 euros to your payment of stay on arrival.

We point out that the maintenance of your bungalows during your stay is entirely your responsibility: there is no cleaning staff for private bungalow occupied . The common part of the property is maintained by us.

The car is safe in the uncovered car park inside the property. A BIP to open and close the electric gate will be given on arrival to enter and exit freely at any time. The damaged or lost BIP will be charged to 62 euros.

The property is lit all night long.
